

IN POLICE COURT

Melvin Karth, who on June 8 shot at his wife and then cut his throat with a razor, pleaded not guilty to the charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder and assault with a deadly weapon with intent to do great bodily injury, when he appeared in Judge Bowman's court Saturday morning. His bail was fixed at $2500, and the preliminary hearing of his case was set for August 2. His wife has notified Assistant County Attorney Bowman that she will not appear against her husband. She is said to have left the state.

Robert Steinhart and Arthur Scott, each charged with assault with intent to murder each other, pleaded not guilty and their bail was fixed at $1000 each. Steinhart's hearing was set for August 1 and that of Scott for August 2. The men engaged in a pistol duel on South Main street Wednesday night, during which Carl O'Ferra, another chauffeur, not concerned in the fight, was shot through the shoulder. He is recovering rapidly.

THE HILLS.

Let us go up into the mighty hills,
For peace and power and strength are there;
There majesty of Nature thrills,
And all the world is wondrous fair.
Let us forget the tumult and the strife,
And live in dreams, disdainful of the odds;
For one sweet hour let's quaff the wine of life—
Tomorrow! Sure! Tomorrow's with the gods.

BOY THANKS JUDGE FOR SENTENCE IMPOSED

By Associated Press.
GLOBE, Ariz., July 9.—When Jose Roma, a fifteen-year-old Mexican lad, was sentenced yesterday to the reform school for having stolen a watch and $5 in money he surprised the court with a hearty little speech of thanks.
"Gracious, judge," he said, "That's why I stole—I wanted to go to school. It's a kindness of you to send me."
The boy added that he had never had a chance to go to school, and seeing no other way to get an education stole the watch and money. He might be sent to the reform institution, where hands and mind might be trained.

Keith-O'Brien's Round-Up Sale Continues One Week Longer

Moving Out the Scatterlings

All through the furniture department these scatterlings come to the surface at the close of the season. Here a rocker, there a chair, a costume, a hatrack, a table, a tabourette, or something else useful on which at the prices quoted you are able to make a substantial saving. (It is so with pictures; yes, and trunk, too). We can name only a few of the good things; you may like others even better. Come and look anyhow and keep these few items in mind, viz: No. 2397, 2 pieces, (chair and rocker), solid mahogany, loose silk plush cushions, hand carved corners; $55.00, for $38.00 for the two pieces.

2373—3-piece solid mahogany parlor suit, figured green silk plush hand carved frames; $125.00, for $85.00.
2367—3-piece solid mahogany parlor suit, green silk velvet, Colonial style frames; $175.00, for $79.50.
116—1 solid mahogany sideboard, clean cut and beautifully made; the only one left in this style, but now it must move; $70.00, for $46.00.
235—The last china closet of the line in early English finish (solid oak), 2 mirrors; $50.00, for $34.50.
445—The only combination bookcase and desk remaining, solid oak, leaded glass door, 3 drawers, early English finish; $45.00, for $30.00.
1422—1 library case, Early English, leaded glass doors. This is more value for the money than could be procured under other circumstances; $50.00, for $29.50.

THE MORRIS CHAIR QUESTION—This article is now almost a necessity in every home. We have a few odd ones on which the saving, if purchased now, will be worth your while. For instance:
Several in Golden Oak velvet cushions, regularly $21.50, for $10.00.
Others at proportionate reductions.

ROCKERS RECEIVED LATE—They have had no chance to sell, nevertheless good merchandising demands that they be moved and others will take their place. The saving to you is considerable, however, viz.:
$10.00, Oak or Mahogany, leather seat, $ 7.95
$14.50, Oak or Mahogany, leather seat, $11.50
$16.50, Fumed Oak, leather seat, $13.00
And so on through the line.

MY LADY'S DESK—She seldom overlooks good value in this article. Here are two items. All Early English, all the best value the store ever offered; plenty of drawers, stationery racks, good locks, viz.:
$32.50, for $22.50
$15.00, for $11.70

PULLMAN BED DAVENPORTS—These 3 items at the prices noted are like finding a sixpence in a pocketbook with no identification mark in it. If you look at them you will feel just that way, viz.:
Oak, Golden, Imitation Leather, $55.00, for $41.50
Oak, Early English, Imitation Leather, $47.50, for $34.50
Oak, Early English, Imitation Leather, $75.00, for $52.50

There Is No Use in Denying

Boon companions!
Rough as is the man sometimes, the horse comprehends his gentler nature.
With mute understanding the steed carries his rider. Both are patient when rain and sleet and snow beat cold on the grassless wastes; exuberant when the sun shines warm and the air is bracing; faithful in the burning heat of summer when the alkaline dust is nigh insufferable; exhilarated when the cool of autumn stimulates!

Inseparable, man and horse round out the year—traught with tireless struggle and frequent danger, enlivened by hours of wild riding and daring recreation!
